	Lone Star College RN to BSN Program	Application Year: 2021-2022	Created: 1/28/2020 Modified 7/20

Steps to PREPARE for RN to BSN program Application
Step	Finished	Please read each step carefully
1.	☐	Enroll in Lone Star College- Bachelor's Programs through Apply Texas. If you are or have been a LSC student, you must reapply again and select Bachelor's Degree.
2.	☐	Submit all official transcripts either by mail or directly to Lone Star College by sending to Registrar@lonestar.edu. Transcript evaluation can take a few weeks. If you have previously submitted transcripts to Lone Star College, please verify on myLoneStar, or with an advisor that your transcripts are in the system.
3.	☐	Complete the Associate of Applied Science in Nursing or Associate of Science in Nursing (Associate Degree in Nursing- ADN degree) from an accredited institution prior to acceptance into the program. (If you are a current ADN student, the degree and licensure must be complete before acceptance into the program).
4.	☐	Hold a current, unencumbered RN license from the state of Texas or enhanced compact license. (If you are a current ADN student, the degree and licensure must be complete before acceptance into the program).
5.	☐	Complete all core requirements prior to acceptance into the program- (42 SCH and PSYC 2314). You may see an advisor or current LSC Catalog for any questions regarding compliance of the core and classes that fulfill the core.

• Core Life & Physical Sciences (30) -- 8 hours	• Core Language, Philosophy & Culture (40)- 3 hours	• Core Component Area (90)- 3 hours
• Core Communication (10) – 6 hours	• Core Mathematics (30)- 3 hours	• Core Component Area (90)- 1 hour
• Core Creative Arts (50)- 3 hours	• Core History (60)- 6 hours	• PSYC 2314- Life span G&D- 3 hours
• Core Social and Behavioral Sciences (80)- 3 hours	• Core Government (70)- 6 hours

6.	☐	A cumulative GPA of 2.25 or higher is required at the time of application to the RN to BSN Program.

RN to BSN Application Opens February 1, 2021 and Closes June 7, 2021

Steps to SUBMIT RN to BSN program Application
Step	Finished	Please read each step carefully
1.	☐	Apply online at https://webapps1.lonestar.edu/HealthOccupationsOnlineApp/ (Make are you have also completed Steps 1 and 2 on the Prepare Steps above.)
2.	☐	All of the following (if applicable) will need to be included when submitting the application online. Please Upload & Submit the Following: • Unofficial transcript with ADN coursework and/or degree (required) • Texas RN, unencumbered license or enhanced nurse compact license (as applicable) • Verification letter of employment in LSC service area (as applicable) • Verification letter of years of practice (as applicable) • Verification letter of leadership role (as applicable) • Verification letter of SNA officer (as applicable) • Verification letter of committee member (as applicable)
3.	☐	All of these documents need to be submitted online before 4:00 pm on the application deadline date.
4.	☐	Admissions to the RN to BSN program is selective based on a points system given for GPA, school and work history, and leadership potential.
5.	☐	Upon acceptance into the RN to BSN programs students will need current background check, current drug screening, current immunization, health record, and current BLS for the healthcare provider card.